CARTOON CAPE

India has always been a hub of cultural and religious diversities and its orientation goes back in the historical times. India nourishes all kinds of religions and races from the beginning of culture and civilization and has been an epitome of peaceful co-existence. The emergence of Communalism and Racism is a potential threat to the sovereignty, democracy, integrity, and in short the very existence of India.

Communalism designates the conflicts not only between extremist religious communities and the people of the same religion, but also between the people of different religions, regions and states. It is a modern day phenomenon – a sectarian, restrictive, and negative response to the process of modern nation building.

Change doesn't start with action; it starts with vision and it is art that creates vision. Keeping this in mind, Sankalp presents CARTOON CAPE, an online sketching competition. . Cartoon cape is an online caricature making competition. So unleash your imagination and let your pencil portray the current social issues on paper. Who knows we could have among us the new R.K. Laxman or Jitesh Ji!
